

www.returnfarfurcountry.ca

Treasures From the Far Fur Country

A special screening of archival Hudson's Bay Company films

A special screening to celebrate the return to Canada of rarely seen films of the Hudson Bay Company's activities and First Nations communities in the Canadian north in the early 20th century. Featuring excerpts from newly transferred nitrate film from 1920 -- an exciting addition to the Hudson's Bay Company Archives collection.

Friday, September 14
7pm
Nat Taylor Cinema
North Ross Building
York University, Toronto

30 min. Followed by a presentation and Q&A

