

MUNK
SCHOOL OF GLOBAL AFFAIRS

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO

Canadian Centre for International Justice Toronto Working Group in partnership with Trudeau Centre for Peace & Conflict Studies

Film Screening and Panel Discussion

BAHRAIN: SHOUTING IN THE DARK

The award winning story of the Arab revolution that was abandoned by the Arabs, forsaken by the West and forgotten by the world.

Panelists:

- Abdullah Abuidrees, Bahrain Youth Society for Human Rights
- Yusur Al Bahrani, Director at Large, Amnesty International and a human rights activist who has worked on the issue

Thursday, November 29, 6:30 p.m

University of Toronto, Room 108

Shoppers Drug Mart Auditorium, Koffler House

569 Spadina Crescent

Pay-what-you-can (suggested donation of $5.00)

JOIN US FOR OUR OTHER SCREENINGS IN THIS SERIES:

BAHRAIN: SHOUTING IN THE DARK

Ryerson University

Tuesday, October 30th, 7:00 p.m

Oakham Lounge

Oakham House

55 Gould Street

GRANITO: HOW TO NAIL A DICTATOR

York University

Thursday, January 24th, 6:30 p.m.

Room 1014

Osgoode Hall Law School

Ignat Kaneff Building

4700 Keele Street

For more information, please email toronto@ccij.ca or visit <http://ccijtoronto.wordpress.com>.